

The "Poplar Forest Chip Shots" forum/discussion board "Registration Process"

Go to <http://www.yopics.net/pfgolf> in your "Browser (Internet Explorer, Firefox, etc.).

There you will see a menu with the selections:

Events / Tee Times / Results / Officers & Directors /
Bylaws / Message Board/Forum / Home

Cursor changes to "a pointing hand" indicates that what it is pointing to is a "Hot Link"

By placing your mouse cursor over any of these selections and pressing ("clicking") the left button on your mouse while the cursor is "a pointing hand" you will be taken to "that" particular page. Note: Some of the menu selections (eg. "Events", "Tee Times", "Results"), may not "live" yet (clicking of these won't take you to any other page, ...yet...).

Move your mouse so that your cursor passes over the "Message Board/Forum" selection and press (click) the left button on your mouse when the cursor turns to "a pointing hand". By doing this you will be taken to the "Forum". An Internet forum is a web application for holding discussions and posting user generated content.

To participate in the discussions there, generate new discussion topics, etc. you must "Register". To Register, left click (as described above) on the word "Register".

1. Fill in the box "Choose user ID" with a name you wish to have as your "ID" (others will not see this name).
2. Fill in the box "Choose displayed name:" - the name you wish to be known as while using the Forum.
